5 systems active in the state, heavy rains forecast

Orange alert in 17 districts including Ahmedabad; NDRF rescues people in Dhingda, Bavla

Heaviest rainfall in Ahmedabad and surrounding talukas.

The state has received an average of 19.42 inches of rainfall so far, which is 54.28% of the total season. In the last 24 hours, 137 talukas of the state have received an average of 5.50 mm of rainfall. In the last 24 hours, Kaprada in Valsad has received the highest rainfall of 4 inches, Amirgarh in Banaskantha 3.15 inches, Deesa 2.83 inches, Rah in Vav-Tharad 2.40 inches and Mehsana 1.77 inches.

Today, from 6 am to 2 pm, 128 talukas have received rain, with Amirgarh in Banaskantha receiving two and a half inches of rain. Ahmedabad has recorded one and a half inches of rain, creating a water-bombing situation. While Dhandhuka Panthak received one inch and Dholera Panthak received one and a half inches of rain. The rain became a hindrance for people going to school and work in the morning.

Currently, there is a forecast of heavy rain as a total of 5 systems are active in the state. Fishermen have been advised not to venture into the sea on July 30 and 31. Today (July 27), a 'yellow alert' has been issued with a forecast of heavy rain in 18 districts and two union territories including Vav-Tharad, Patan, Vadodara.

Waterlogging in Ahmedabad, collapsed house and NDRF rescue in Dholera.Waterlogging has occurred in Ahmedabad city after just one and a half inches of rain. Motorists and residents are in great distress as water is filled from knee to waist in areas like SG Highway, Thaltej, Chanakyapuri, Chandlodia and Bopal, while many two-wheelers were stranded. Apart from this, there has been an incident of tree collapse near Pakwan and a dilapidated house collapsing in the slope of Astodia, where the estate department has reached the spot and started the work of removing the dangerous part.

On the other hand, Meghraja has started batting vigorously in Dhandhuka and Dholera panthak since early morning. Heavy rains in Dhandhuka and Dholera have affected normal life. Due to excessive rains and inflow of water, the village of Vani Talaw in Dholera taluka has been surrounded from all sides and turned into a bat, making it inaccessible. Seeing the seriousness of the situation, the administration has deployed an NDRF team, which is conducting a rescue operation to move the villagers to a safe place with the help of boats.

Status of Dams and Reservoirs - Sardar Sarovar (Narmada Dam) of the state has stored 69.25% (2,31,342 mcft) of its total capacity. Apart from this, 45.41% of the total storage capacity is available in 206 other reservoirs. A total of 13 dams in the state are 100% full, 26 dams are 70% to 100% full and 28 dams are 50% to 70%. In terms of security, currently 21 dams have been put on high alert, 05 dams on alert and 13 dams on warning level.

Road and Traffic Conditions

Due to heavy rains, a total of 208 roads under the Road and Building Department have been closed for traffic. This includes 137 Panchayat roads, 23 other roads, 12 State Highways and 2 National Highways. The districts most affected by the road closures are Ahmedabad (42 roads), Valsad (40 roads), Surendranagar (23 roads) and Navsari (18 roads). Apart from this, the GSRTC's ST bus service has also been affected.

People who had been in the water for 3 days got angry on seeing the mayor

Uproar during Bopal visit, Hitesh Barot said- 'He was a Congress candidate, he is just playing a game'

Ahmedabad

Fierce fight between Mayor Hitesh Barot and locals of Bopal

Due to heavy rains in Ahmedabad city on the 23rd, the condition of Bopal, Ghuma and Shela areas became miserable. Even after three days, many societies are still waterlogged. Meanwhile, when Mayor Hitesh Barot visited Bopal village today, local people and Congress leaders surrounded him and asked him questions. The mayor said that the one who got agitated was a Congress worker, the people here have no problem. The municipal corporation is carrying out the work of draining the water. For the last three days, the condition of the village areas was such that one had to go by boat. Bhaskar reporter also got to know the condition of the people in this area by sitting in a boat on the 25th. In which people cried while telling their stories.

The public expressed their anger by surrounding the mayor in Bopal village.

Due to heavy rains, many areas including Bopal Ghuma were flooded. Due to which the traffic also came to a standstill. Also, the houses including Thakor Vas, Parmar Vas in Bopal village have been flooded for the last three days. But due to the non-disposal of water, the locals have been forced to live a life of hunger and thirst.

Also, water has entered the houses of the people and all the things including the house have been damaged. Also, not a single officer or leader had visited the area for three days. Due to which the people were also demanding that the Chief Minister should visit.

However, when Mayor Hitesh Barot arrived early this morning to visit the area, there was a lot of anger among the people. As soon as they saw the mayor, people surrounded him and showered him with questions. People who were living a hungry life took the mayor's life to task.

This situation in Bopal area has caused anger among the people.

People living in societies in the Bopal area had to resort to boats for transportation.

All the houses and belongings were submerged due to waterlogging in our area - Rajnikantbhai

In a conversation with 'Divya Bhaskar', Rajnikantbhai said that for the last three days, our house and society were submerged in water. We were forced to live hungry and thirsty as the water did not drain for three days. The damage due to waterlogging in the house has been more than one lakh. All the electrical appliances have deteriorated due to waterlogging. Also, the grains and mattresses have also been submerged in water.

Approximately 150 people live in our Parmar Vas. All of them used to go out to get drinking water and food by taking boats with the help of the locals. Despite the waterlogging for three days, no leader or official came to see us. While today, the mayor visited and assured that arrangements for water drainage would be made.

When I made a presentation, the mayor said - if you can do it, do it - Congress Ward President

PI climbs electricity pole to save youth trapped in flood for 14 hours

Ahmedabad, A person clung to an electric pole to save his life in the rushing water from all sides. To save the person, a police inspector climbed onto the high-voltage electric pole without worrying about his life. This video is currently going viral on social media. Along with the people, ministers and leaders have also posted this video.

Actually this viral video is from Vapi. The person who climbed the pillar to save a person trapped in the water is PI B.N. Gohil, who is on duty at Dungra Police Station.

How did this incident happen? How did the police come to know about it? What efforts were made to save him and how did they succeed? What was going on in the mind of the PI while he was on the light pole to save this person? To get answers to many such questions, Divya Bhaskar spoke to Valsad DySP B.N. Dave and PI B.N. Gohil, as well as Maksudanbhai, who was rescued.

The Kolak River became turbulent due to heavy rains.

The night of July 22 was like a disaster for the residents of Vapi. Because here it was raining uncontrollably as if a cloud had burst and the Kolak River had assumed a violent form. Due to which a flood situation was created all around. On the other hand, Maksudanbhai, who was working as a security guard on the outskirts.

36 companies including Aditya Birla-Mahindra fear loss of crores, rain in more than 200 talukas

Today, from 6 am to 10 pm, more than 200 talukas have received rainfall ranging from 1 mm to 5 inches. The highest rainfall was recorded in Kaprada of Valsad with 4.84 inches, and in Ogad of Banaskantha with 3.86 inches. Union Minister for Jal Shakti C.R. Patil has announced assistance for the flood-affected people of Navsari district. Flood-affected families will be paid an assistance of ?6,800 for the loss of their household goods, out of which ?1,800 will be paid immediately. In addition, assistance of 37,500 per cow and buffalo and ?22,000 per goat will be given for the loss of livestock. On the other hand, the route has been diverted due to heavy water flowing near Bavla on the Rajkot-Ahmedabad National Highway. People are confined to their homes in Ahmedabad and Surat as the water has not receded yet. On Friday, 40,500 people were evacuated and 6,367 people were rescued in the state due to heavy rains, while eight people died due to drowning.

The Meteorological Department has issued a red alert in 9 districts including Vav-Tharad and Banaskantha with the possibility of extremely heavy rainfall today. While an orange alert has been issued in 17 districts including Ahmedabad, a yellow alert has been issued in seven districts.
