'Baba Bageshwar roared and made men and women cry'

Scenes of spreading superstition in the name of exorcising ghosts in public at Dhirendra Shastri's divine court in Rajkot, Piplia demands suo moto

Rajkot

A major controversy has arisen after the 'Divya Darbar' of Dhirendra Krishna Shastri, the Pithadhishwar of Bageshwar Dham, held at the Race Course Ground in Rajkot, with serious allegations of spreading superstition in public and threatening law and order. Social leader Parasotam Piplia has strongly condemned the attack on journalists and the incident of mutilating an innocent child by people chanting in the name of alleged ghosts in the Darbar. Terming this entire incident as pre-planned and a 'planted hoax', he has accused Baba of seeking financial benefits under the guise of superstition. Along with this, he has strongly demanded that a 'suo moto' case be filed against Dhirendra Shastri in this matter before the administration.

Saurashtra's leading cooperative and Patidar leader Purshottambhai Piplia has once again thrown an open challenge to Dhirendra Krishna Shastri (Baba Bageshwar) of Bageshwardham by posting an aggressive post on social media. The controversy has intensified after scenes emerged of Dhirendra Shastri publicly addressing many people after completing the Katha after the Divya Darbar held in Rajkot.

In the context of this incident, Purushottambhai Piplia has given a direct challenge by naming Baba and wrote that if he has the strength, he should come to the media house of his choice and discuss 'more moro' (face to face) and if he does not spoil the 'diaper' in the discussion, then tell him. Piplia, who has previously made serious allegations that Baba Bageshwar is spreading superstition, has strongly condemned the alleged incident of calling people in the name of ghosts and demons in the divine court yesterday.

In the ghost court, Baba attacked people by calling them Dakini, Sakini, Pichashini.

The divine court of Baba Bageshwar's Dhirendra Kumar Shastri in the Race Course Ground of Rajkot has come into controversy. Here, the people who were calling them attacked, social leader and Qaidazam Parasotam Piplia has condemned this incident and called the people including the women who were attacking as Dakini, Sakini, Pichashini called by Baba and said that the fact that a child was called was Baba's heinous act. Along with this, the police demanded that a suo moto be filed in this matter.

This incident was bound to happen. I have been giving the results for a week. Baba himself spreads superstition by calling and calling the Dakini, Sakini, Pichashi and ghost souls. Through which he gets financial benefits. Baba had no interest in the story of Hanuman's character, which is proven from his two-day story. Baba also has no knowledge about the character of Hanuman. He is only interested in the divine court, which I call the ghost court. Which has been proven today. Picking the lottery ticket and giving results is a pretense and a trick and is magic. Magicians also do this kind of magic, but they do not say that it is divine power, but they say that this is a trick and technique.

Magicians organize such programs through their magicians. Here too, Baba had brought his magicians. The magicians spoke as if a trained parrot was talking. There is no reason to believe that there is any kind of divine power in it. The one who was shouting could only see the journalists.

Who will succeed late 'Yogesh Kaka' on Manjalpur seat?

Names of these stalwarts including current and former city president, former mayor in the race; Politics heats up with list of contenders

Vadodara

A prayer meeting was held on Sunday after the death of senior MLA Yogesh Patel of Manjalpur in Vadodara city on June 2. Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel was also present in this prayer meeting and consoled the family. However, a discussion gained momentum in the prayer meeting and even after that, who is the successor of the uncle now?

After Yogesh Kaka, the names of Dr. Jayaprakash Soni and Dr. Vijay Shah were also in the discussion. After being elected for 8 consecutive terms, Yogesh Patel passed away. The assembly has been dissolved for the third time due to the death of Yogesh Kaka. A prayer meeting was organized on Sunday to pay homage to Yogesh Patel. Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel was specially present in it. However, there was a discussion among the people in the prayer meeting and even after that, who will be given the command of Manjalpur now? Among the new names, the names of the current city president of BJP Dr. Jayaprakash Soni and former city president Dr. Vijay Shah were seen in the discussion. Some people are considering these two as strong contenders.

Former Mayor Nilesh Rathod and former corporator Ghanshyam Patel are also in the race. Among the special people of late Yogesh Patel, former Mayor Nilesh Rathod's name is at the forefront. Apart from this, former councilor Ghanshyam Patel was also considered a personal friend of Yogesh Patel. At that time, the names of these two politicians are also seen in the discussion as the successors of Yogesh Kaka. However, apart from this, if the name of women is blackened by selection, then the name of Mahila Morcha city president Snehal Patel is also being discussed. If no appointment is made from the circle around Yogesh Patel, then the name of Hiren Sukhdiya, son of former MLA Jitu Sukhdiya, who was recently elected as a corporator, is also being discussed. Mayank Patel, who will be the successor in Shivji's ride, is also in the discussion.

If the office bearers who have already held any office are excluded, then there is a discussion that Mayank Patel of CREDAI can also be selected as the successor of Satyam Shivam Sundaram, Shivji's ride, just like his uncle. However, everyone is watching what the organization is thinking at present. There is still about one and a half years left for the next assembly elections, by the time the assembly elections will be held in December 2027, there is an expectation of a new name on this seat. Yogesh Kaka's name was announced at the last moment in this term of the assembly. Yogesh Patel's name was announced at the last moment as the candidate for the Manjalpur assembly in this term of the assembly. Although Yogesh Kaka did not fit into the Y limit rule announced by the BJP, his name was sealed at the last moment. In this term, apart from Yogesh Kaka, the names of former standing chairman Dr. Hitendra Patel, K.P. Patel, and Himanshu Patel were in the news, whose tickets were cut and Kaka was directly declared the candidate.

Wearing goggles, tattoos in hands, and dressed up to steal, CCTV

Vadodara, A high-profile woman who came to a well-known jewelry showroom in the posh Race Course area of Vadodara city on the pretext of shopping has come to light. However, due to the vigilance of the showroom staff, the woman's wallet burst and she was caught red-handed. When the woman was caught, she fell down and apologized. The police were informed about the incident and the police caught the woman and took her to the police station, but the showroom managers did not file any police complaint in this matter. A woman entered the showroom disguised as a customer and wanted to see gold and diamond jewellery. While looking at the jewellery, she tried to keep the staff busy with her conversation. During this, the woman, avoiding the attention of the staff, hid a precious gold-diamond earring and finger ring in her mouth.

The stolen jewelry was found in her mouth.

However, the staff became suspicious about the woman's movements and counted the jewelry again. When some items were found missing, the staff started questioning the woman. The woman was frightened by the staff's alertness and strictness, and the stolen jewelry was found in her mouth. Thus, the attempt to steal jewelry worth lakhs of rupees failed.

The woman was detained.

Upon receiving information about the incident, a police team immediately reached the spot and detained the woman. Preliminary investigation suggests that the woman may have targeted other large jewelry showrooms in the past as well. The woman's background has been checked. The police are now investigating the woman's criminal history.
