Karnataka SIR Goes Haywire On Day 3; Ramanagara DC Issues Notices To Three BLOs Over 'Mass Survey' In Choultry

Bengaluru: The Special Intensive Review (SIR) of voter list in Karnataka has gone haywire on the third day of commencing, with the Booth Level Officers (BLOs), instead of going house to house, conducting the SIR in places like Choultry, Places of Worship, Conference halls of the apartment complexes and other such places. While Union Minister and the JD(S) supremo H D Kumaraswamy levelled the allegations against by releasing the videos of SIR being conducted in a choultry in Ramanagar, the other reports surfaced from various areas of Bengaluru city, Kunigal town in Tumakuru district and Shivamogga district also.

Meanwhile, Chief Minister D K Shivakumar said that it was wrong on the part of the BLOs to distribute the forms in community halls or other public places. ``They are expected to go home to home and conduct the SIR." Following the allegations, the Karnataka State Election Commissioner Anbu Kumar issued a notice to the Ramanagara DC Yeshwanth V Gurukar, who, in turn issued show cause notices to three BLOs, who were in charge of Tippu Nagar area in Ramanagara town. Exhibiting the photos and Videos of `mass SIR' being conducted in a Choultry at Tippu Nagar in Ramanagar, Kumaraswamy alleged that Bangladeshi illegal immigrants were being facilitated in the Electoral Rolls in the Chief Minister's home district. ``The government is systematically compromising the integrity of the SIR process not only in Ramanagara district, but also in several parts of the State. The blatant irregularities taking place in Ramanagara is the proof of how the entire exercise is being subverted. The Ramanagara Deputy Commissioner must be suspended immediately, and all officials who have failed in their duty must be removed from service," he demanded. Kumaraswamy further alleged, citing video evidence, that thousands of fraudulent voters, including illegal Bangladeshi migrants were being provided with fabricated documentation through the direct influence of the Chief Minister's office. "I urge the Election Commission of India to intervene immediately and put an end to this illegal exercise," he said. Stating that creating documents for illegal Bang ladeshi immigrants was nothing short of an act against the Nation's interest, Kumaraswamy said: "I will submit all the video evidence and supporting material to Union Home Minister Amit Shah and the Election Commission of India.

Punjab And Haryana HC Quashes FIR Against Woman Over Pet Dog Dressed As Lord Krishna, Says Act Was Protected Expression Of Devotion

Chandigarh: The Punjab and Haryana High Court has quashed an FIR registered against a woman for allegedly hurting religious sentiments by dressing her pet dog as Lord Krishna and posting its photographs on WhatsApp, holding that her act was an expression of devotion carried out in good faith and did not attract Section 298 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023. Justice Subhas Mehla held that the prosecution could not continue as the essential ingredients of the offence, including mens rea (criminal intent), were absent. The court observed that personal expressions of faith cannot be criminalised merely because they offend the sentiments of others. "Individual expression of the petitioner, shaped by her personal experiences, cannot be criminalised merely because it does not align with the sensitivities of others. In the absence of mens rea, criminal proceedings cannot be initiated to validate subjective perceptions of hurt. Constitutional tolerance must override hypersensitivity, which leads innocent acts to be construed as desecration," the court said. The petitioner had approached the High Court seeking quashing of the FIR and the final report filed under the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023. The case arose from a complaint by a private individual alleging that the woman had hurt the religious sentiments of the Hindu community by dressing her pet dog in attire associated with Lord Krishna on Janmashtami and uploading the photograph as her WhatsApp status.

During the investigation, the petitioner, who is issueless, stated that she treated her pet dog as her child and had dressed it up as part of the festival without any intention of offending anyone's religious sentiments.

'Strict Punishment Must Be Ensured': RSS Breaks Silence On Ram Temple Donation Embezzlement Case

New Delhi: The Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) on Friday issued its first detailed response to the alleged embezzlement of donations from the Ram Lalla Temple in Ayodhya, calling the incident "highly condemnable" and demanding strict punishment for those found guilty. In a video statement, RSS General Secretary Dattatreya Hosabale said the grand temple at Shri Ram Janmabhoomi had become a symbol of faith and devotion for the entire Hindu society through the sacrifices and dedication of generations of Ram devotees. Referring to the alleged theft from the temple's donation boxes, Hosabale said the incident had deeply hurt the sentiments and reverence of devotees across the country.

"The unfortunate incident of theft from the donation boxes placed in the Shri Ram Lalla Temple in Ayodhya has wounded the sentiments and reverence of the entire society and Ram devotees, and we are all hurt by this event," he said. Hosabale noted that, at the request of the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust, the Uttar Pradesh government had constituted a Special Investigation Team (SIT) and initiated legal proceedings based on its recommendations. He stressed that anyone found guilty during the investigation must face strict punishment. The RSS also urged the temple trust to treat the incident as an exceptional case and take comprehensive measures to strengthen security, financial management and operational transparency. Hosabale said effective systems should be put in place to ensure that the faith of crores of Ram devotees in the Ayodhya temple remains "unbroken and unwavering." He further said the prevailing confusion surrounding the issue should end through decisive action by the temple management and the SIT.

According to the RSS, transparent financial systems, efficient administration and an atmosphere of sanctity would reinforce public trust in the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust. Appealing for restraint, the RSS urged the Hindu community to remain patient and not allow what it described as "anti-Hindu" and "anti-national" forces to exploit the incident to malign Hindu dharma and society while the investigation is underway.

Govt Summons Meta Over Instagram Ads Promoting Child Sexual Abuse Material: Report

New Delhi: Union IT Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw has directed officials of the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY) to summon Meta over Instagram advertisements allegedly promoting child sexual abuse material (CSAM), sources said on Friday. The ministry is expected to seek a detailed explanation from the social media giant and ask it to clarify how such advertisements were allowed to appear on Instagram despite the platform's content moderation mechanisms. The move marks the second instance this week of the Centre taking action involving Meta. Earlier on Wednesday, the government issued a notice to the company over WhatsApp's proposed username feature, expressing concerns that it could facilitate online fraud, phishing, digital arrest scams and identity impersonation. The Centre directed WhatsApp to suspend the rollout of the feature until consultations with the government are completed and its concerns are satisfactorily addressed. The notice also asked Meta to explain why proceedings should not be initiated against the company under the Information Technology Act and the relevant rules, arguing that the proposed feature could heighten cybersecurity risks. Additionally, the government reminded Meta that WhatsApp, classified as a significant social media intermediary, is obligated to comply with the due diligence requirements prescribed under the Information Technology Act and its associated rules.
