"It would be incorrect to claim BJP benefited from SIR": BJP Tripura MP Biplab Deb

New Delhi : In a sharp response to ongoing debates surrounding the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) process, BJP MP from Tripura Biplab Kumar Deb on Tuesday firmly stated that it would be incorrect to claim that the Bharatiya Janata Party benefited from the SIR process. Deb emphasised that the voter list revision was implemented across five states, including Tamil Nadu, Kerala, and others, questioning the integrity of the accusations against the BJP's involvement in the process. Speaking to news agency, Deb said, "It would be incorrect to claim that the BJP benefited from the 'SIR.' For this very 'SIR' process was implemented across five states--including Tamil Nadu, Kerala, and several others." He challenged those who raised doubts about the integrity of the process, saying, "If a thief were to demand that 'even the votes of the deceased be counted,' then who would be left to cast the legitimate votes? Who would cast votes on behalf of those who do not even reside in that locality--that is, the migrant population? Why should the TMC's goons be granted the right to cast votes?"

Speaking after the BJP's success in West Bengal elections, Deb attributed the victory to the hard work of the party and the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Sharing his thoughts on the party's success, Deb expressed, "I am not overly euphoric about this victory. However, I had complete faith in the leadership of PM Narendra Modi. The people of West Bengal, too, reposed their trust in PM Modi."

Deb further recalled the 2021 elections, where the BJP was on the verge of forming the government. He attributed the TMC's success to the COVID-19 pandemic, which he claimed had hindered the voting process. "The TMC attempted to prevent people from casting their votes. This time, with the help of the Election Commission, West Bengal witnessed a record voter turnout of 93%. Now, the people of West Bengal have attained freedom from the TMC. Mamata Banerjee had stalled development in West Bengal, and now, the people of West Bengal have shown the TMC the door once and for all," he said.

Further, the BJP MP emphasised the people's desire for development and better opportunities, saying, "People are compelled to migrate elsewhere in search of employment. We observe young men travelling to Delhi for a meagre salary of 5,000 to 6,000 rupees, where they end up selling Jhalmuri. There is no longer any need for us to discuss Mamata Banerjee or the TMC party. I express my gratitude to the people of Bengal who cast their votes without fear and demonstrated their faith in Modi Ji and his leadership. Our objective now is to build a strong and empowered West Bengal."

Deb also drew attention to the record-breaking 93% voter turnout in the state and took a sarcastic dig at Mamata Banerjee. "Did Mamata Banerjee's aunt cast this 93% of the votes?" he quipped. "Following this defeat, Mamata Banerjee ought to feel ashamed; she must respect the public mandate and the election results. She should express her gratitude to those individuals who kept the TMC in power in West Bengal for fifteen years. Now, let us simply forget about the TMC. This is beneficial--for you, for me, for the public, and for the entire nation as well," Biplab Deb said.

When asked about Mamata Banerjee's comments regarding 'looting,' Deb replied, "Why is there no one to ask the TMC: who, exactly, was responsible for this looting?" Deb continued his criticism of the TMC, claiming that under Mamata Banerjee's rule, the people of West Bengal were subjected to violence and fear.

Foreign Secy Misri holds talks with Japan's Economic Security Minister; agrees to deepen ties for resilient supply chains

New Delhi : Foreign Secretary Vikram Misri on Tuesday held discussions with Japan's Minister in charge of Economic Security and Minister of State for Artificial Intelligence Strategy Kimi Onoda, during which both sides reaffirmed the importance of the India-Japan Special Strategic and Global Partnership.

According to a post on X by the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA), the two leaders agreed to further strengthen collaboration in the domain of economic security, with a particular focus on building secure, resilient and trusted supply chains through enhanced public-private partnerships. "Both sides affirmed the importance of the India-Japan Special Strategic and Global Partnership and agreed to deepen public-private partnerships in economic security for secure, resilient and trusted supply chains," the MEA stated in its post. The engagement comes amid growing cooperation between the two countries in strategic and emerging technology sectors. Earlier in the day, Union Minister of Coal and Mines G Kishan Reddy also held a meeting with Minister Onoda in the national capital, where discussions focused on strengthening bilateral cooperation in the critical minerals sector.

According to a post on X by the Ministry of Mines, the talks covered exploration, processing and recycling of critical minerals, with an emphasis on building diversified and resilient supply chains to support long-term resource security. Senior officials from the Ministry of Mines were also present during the meeting.

During the engagement, the Indian side invited Japanese companies to explore investment opportunities in India's critical minerals sector, underscoring New Delhi's push to deepen international partnerships in strategic resource domains.

"The meeting focused on strengthening cooperation in the critical minerals sector, including exploration, processing and recycling of critical minerals for developing resilient and diversified supply chains," the Ministry of Mines stated in its post. The discussions reflect the growing convergence between India and Japan on economic security, supply chain resilience, and strategic technologies as both countries seek to strengthen cooperation in key areas of mutual interest. Minister Onoda also co-chaired the 3rd Joint Committee Meeting (JCM) on Healthcare between India and Japan at Bharat Mandapam in the national capital, along with Union Minister of Health and Family Welfare JP Nadda. Welcoming the delegation, Union Health Secretary Punya Salila Srivastava noted that India and Japan share a partnership grounded in mutual respect, trust, and a shared vision for the future. Speaking on the occasion, Nadda underscored that the meeting reflects the shared commitment of both countries to deepen collaboration and foster new partnerships in the health sector and noted that India-Japan cooperation in healthcare is guided by the Memorandum of Cooperation in Healthcare and Wellness, and a shared vision of strengthening health systems, improving accessibility, and promoting innovation for better health outcomes. Addressing the meeting, Onoda reinforced Tokyo's continued engagement in advancing healthcare cooperation through innovation, technology, and research, while expressing commitment to further strengthening bilateral collaboration.

Both sides expressed optimism about further strengthening bilateral cooperation to achieve better health outcomes for their citizens.

Tourists flock to Kashmir: Dal Lake's serenity and cool climate draw visitors in large numbers

Srinagar : Kashmir is seeing a rise in the number of tourists as people from different places come to enjoy its beauty. Visitors are especially loving the calm Dal Lake and the cool, pleasant morning weather. A tourist from Delhi, Mukesh, shared his excitement about the unique experience of visiting Kashmir with his group of 40, enjoying the cooler weather and scenic spots like Gulmarg and Dal Lake. Speaking to ANI, Mukesh said," I am from Delhi. It feels really good. We are enjoying it a lot. There are about 40 people with me. And it feels really good. It does not feel like we are in Delhi or in Kashmir. The weather is completely different. Yesterday, we went to Gulmarg. We enjoyed the snow. It felt really good. It is very cold outside. The weather here is completely different. In Delhi, it is 40 degrees. And here, it is 10 or 12. We are a group of 40 people. We are enjoying it a lot. We all went to the Shikara Ride." Mukesh encouraged others to visit Kashmir, calling it "paradise on earth," and reassured that the region is now safe and welcoming, with no fear or concerns, as he and his group are enjoying their time without any worries. "I would like to tell everyone that they should visit Kashmir at least once in their life. It is paradise on earth. It is heaven on earth. We should never worry that Kashmir is not safe. There was a problem in the past. People were afraid to come here. But we feel like we are in our own home. We feel like we are in our own place. That is how we feel in Kashmir. And it feels really good. There's no fear. Everyone is enjoying. And there is a crowd. Everything is going well," said Mukesh.

UBT leader Sanjay Raut supports Mamata Banerjee's claims of election rigging, defends her moral victory

Mumbai : Shiv Sena (UBT) MP Sanjay Raut on Wednesday expressed support for West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee's recent remarks about the BJP of "looting" the democratic process, affirming that the Election Commission's role in the polls was questionable.

Raut acknowledged Banerjee's claims about rigged Assembly elections and voter deletions, stating that her ongoing protests, both in power and opposition, reflect her stance against injustice. He also backed her decision not to resign, citing her moral victory. "What Mamata Banerjee said yesterday, I have heard and understood her words. The first thing Mamata Banerjee said was that the Election Commission is the villain, and the villain won the election... She says that 100 Assembly seats were rigged; this is true. It is also true that the names of lakhs of people were deleted. All these things that Mamata Banerjee said are true. Mamata Didi says that she will not resign because she has achieved a moral victory. Mamata Didi has always been a movement, whether she is the Chief Minister, in power, or in the opposition. Even while being the Chief Minister, Mamata Didi has protested on the streets many times against the Central Government..." Sanjay Raut emphasises the INDIA bloc's is always with Mamata Banerjee, noting that leaders like Uddhav Thackeray and Rahul Gandhi have personally reached out to reaffirm their support following the election results. "Uddhav Thackeray has spoken with her. Rahul Gandhi has also spoken. I saw there are many leaders in the India Bloc who spoke to her. We will now have to struggle harder... INDIA alliance is always with Mamata ji and will always be. Rahul ji also said yesterday that if anyone is happy that Mamata didi lost, then do not express this happiness, this is the defeat of the country, of democracy," said Raut.

Miscreants fire gunshots at police, central forces during patroling in Bamangheri; five personnel injured

North 24 Parganas : Amidst the continuous cases of post-poll violence and clashes in West Bengal, miscreants opened fire at a police team accompanied by central forces in another incident, which was patrolling in the region, as per locals. The incident took place in the Bamangheri area (Ward No. 14) of the Sarberia-Agarhati Gram Panchayat under the jurisdiction of Nazat Police Station. According to sources, the Officer-in-Charge (OC) of Nazat Police Station, Police Constable from Rajbari Outpost and a female police official sustained gunshot wounds. Additionally, two jawans from the central forces were also shot. All the injured were taken to the Minakha Rural Hospital, following which they were separately transferred to other hospitals in Kolkata. Upon investigation, the agencies recovered bag filled with bombs from the incident spot. According to a local, she saw a group of boys running through her yard while she was hiding under the bed along with her family. She stated that the police broke the door of her house and took her family with them, after which they were released in the morning.

The local also said that heard gun shots while accusing the police of arresting five tribal and four people from Muslim community. "A group of boys was running while we were hiding under the bed. Seeing the police, they fled through our yard. The police then broke down the door and took us into custody. We were released the following morning, but our family members were not. They arrested five members of our tribal community and four Muslims. We heard gunshots, but at the time, we mistook the sound for a door slamming or the rattling of the asbestos roof. We didn't know who was out there, so we locked ourselves inside the house.
