DETERMINATION OF MATERIAL EVENTS AND INFORMATION

1. Categories of Information

a. Disclosure of information deemed to be material

Certain information or events are “deemed” to be material under the SEBI Listing Regulations and such information shall be disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) without application of any materiality thresholds. The events listed under Paragraph A of Part A of Schedule III to the SEBI Listing Regulations shall be deemed to be material and shall be disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) within the timeframe which has been specified under the SEBI Listing Regulations. A list of these events and information are annexed hereto as Annexure 1.

b. Disclosure of other information based on application of materiality criteria

Events listed under Paragraph B of Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI Listing Regulations shall be disclosed to the Stock Exchange(s) within the timelines as specified under the SEBI Listing Regulations, if those listed events are material as per the criteria for determination of materiality. An indicative list of these events and information are annexed hereto as Annexure 2.

An information or event should be regarded as “material” if:

- the omission of such event or information is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- the omission of such event or information is likely to result in a significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - (a) two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
 - (b) two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the Company, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - (c) five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;

In case where the criteria specified above are not applicable, any event or information may be treated as being material if, in the opinion of the Board, such event or information is considered material.

For the removal of doubts, this Policy does not dilute any requirement of the SEBI Listing Regulations.

- c. In addition, for events and information as specified under Paragraph C of Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI Listing Regulations, the Company shall make disclosures within the timeframe prescribed by the SEBI Listing Regulations. This includes, any major development that is likely to affect business, e.g., emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise their position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

- d. The Authorised Person(s) shall, with respect to the disclosures made under the Policy, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis or as may be required, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations. The contents of the disclosure shall be as per guidance issued under the Master Circular, including such amendments as may be issued from time to time. The Authorised Person(s), on behalf of the Company, may on their initiative as well, confirm or deny any reported event or information to Stock Exchange(s).
- e. The Authorised Person(s) shall provide specific and adequate reply to all queries raised by Stock Exchange(s) with respect to any event/information.
- f. Further, pursuant to Regulation 30A of the SEBI Listing Regulations, all the shareholders, promoters, promoter group entities, related parties, directors, Key Managerial Personnel and employees of the Company or of its holding, subsidiary and associate company, who are parties to the agreements specified in Clause 5A of Paragraph A of Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI Listing Regulations, shall inform the Company about the agreement to which the Company is not a party, within two working days of entering into such agreements or signing an agreement to enter into such agreements.

2. Person(s) Responsible for Disclosure

- a. The Board of the Company has authorised the Key Managerial Personnel (Authorised Person(s)) to determine the materiality of an event or information and to make appropriate disclosure on a timely basis.
- b. The Key Managerial Personnel shall, jointly and severally, be the authority to determine the materiality of any information, classify it as a material information, decide the appropriate time at which disclosure is to be filed with the Stock Exchange(s) and details that may be filed in the best interest of present and potential investors.
- c. The Authorised Person(s) shall, jointly and severally, have the following powers and responsibilities for determining the material events or information:
 - i. To review and assess an event or information that may qualify as 'material' and may require disclosure, on the basis of facts and circumstances prevailing at a given point in time.
 - ii. To determine the appropriate time at which the disclosures are to be made to the Stock Exchange(s) based on an assessment of actual time of occurrence of an event or information.
 - iii. To disclose developments that are material in nature on a regular basis, till such time the event or information is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations.
 - iv. To consider such other events or information that may require disclosure to be made to the Stock Exchange(s) which are not explicitly defined in the SEBI

Listing Regulations and determine the materiality, appropriate time and contents of disclosure for such matters.

- v. To disclose all events or information with respect to the Subsidiaries which are material for the Company.

3. Obligations of Internal Stakeholders and Authorised Person(s) for Disclosure

- a. Any event or information, including the information forming part of Annexure 1 and Annexure 2 to the Policy shall be forthwith informed to the Authorised Person(s) upon occurrence, with adequate supporting data/information, to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure to the Stock Exchange(s).
- b. The Authorised Person(s), jointly and severally, will then ascertain the materiality of such event(s) or information based on the above guidelines.
- c. On completion of the assessment, the Authorised Person(s) shall, if required, make appropriate disclosure(s) to the Stock Exchange(s).

4. Timing of Disclosure of Material Events or Information

Disclosures as required to be made under this Policy shall be disclosed by the Company to the Stock Exchange(s) as soon as reasonably possible and in line with the timelines prescribed under applicable laws. For this purpose, the events or information, such as natural calamities, disruption, etc., can be said to have occurred when the Company becomes aware of such events or information, or as soon as any of the Officers have, or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of their duties.

Other events/information can be said to have occurred upon (i) receipt of approval of the Board (e.g. in case of further issue of capital by rights issuance) or (ii) receipt of approval of both Board and shareholders. Where the events are price sensitive in nature, (e.g. declaration of dividends), the said events will be deemed to have occurred and are required to be disclosed on approval of the Board, pending shareholders' approval.

In case of in-principle approval or approval to explore given by the Board (which is not final approval), the same shall not require disclosure under Regulation 30 of the SEBI Listing Regulations.

5. Uploading of the Disclosures made to Stock Exchange(s) on the Website of the Company

The Company shall disclose on its website all such events or information which has been disclosed to Stock Exchange(s) under this Policy and such disclosure shall remain hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years and thereafter, the same shall be treated as per the Archival Policy and Policy on Preservation of Documents of the Company, as applicable.

6. Amendment and Review

Subject to applicable laws, the Board may amend, suspend or rescind this policy at any time. Any issues pertaining to the Policy shall be resolved by the Board in line with the broad intent of the Policy. The Board may also establish further rules and procedures, from time to time, to give effect to the intent of this Policy.

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and any applicable laws, such applicable law in force, shall prevail over this Policy.

7. Compliance

The Company Secretary and Compliance Officer of the Company shall be responsible for supervision of the Policy.

Any queries regarding this Policy may be referred to the Company Secretary and Compliance Officer as defined above, who is in charge of administering, enforcing and updating this Policy.
