

Ahmedabad, Kia India, a leading mass-premium automaker, announced that it has surpassed 1,00,000 paid subscription renewals for Kia Connect in the country, achieving a strong retention over 30% on connected car subscriptions. This milestone reflects strong customer adoption and sustained engagement with Kia's intelligent mobility ecosystem, even after the expiry of the complimentary three-year subscription period. Globally, Kia continues to witness an industry-leading +97%+ enrolment rate, underlining the growing relevance of connected technologies among customers. The achievement highlights the long-term value and strong customer retention of Kia's connected ecosystem. This strong renewal momentum signals a clear shift—customers are moving beyond initial adoption to make connected technology an integral part of their everyday of the natural diamond industry, NDC led this collective celebration, encouraging people from across the industry, from artisans and manufacturers to retailers and consumers to share their authentic stories. The movement came alive on social media, with participants sharing personal moments using #WorldDiamondDay and #NaturalDiamonds, turning the day into a vibrant, global narrative. In India, the celebration reflected a compelling blend of heritage and modern aspiration, as leading diamondtraders and manufacturers spotlighted the journey of a diamond from its natural origin to a finished masterpiece. The reach of World Diamond Day was supported by the active participation of the Gem and Jewellery Export Promotion Council (GJEPC India), Gemological Institute of America (GIA), All India Gem and Jewellery Domestic Council (GIJC) and the Bharat Diamond Bourse, who joined the movement to celebrate natural diamonds. Ahmedabad, Some stories connect in a way that keeps people talking. Vitthal Teedi has been one of those, steadily building a following beyond Gujarati audiences over time. The widely acclaimed Gujarati web series, starring Pratik Gandhi, is set to stream on ShemarooMe from 10 April. Marking his first and only Gujarati web series so far, it promises an engaging blend of drama, crime, romance, and suspense that will keep audiences hooked. Vitthal Teedi follows the journey of Vitthal, a man from humble beginnings who possesses an extraordinary talent for playing cards. A gambler who seems impossible to defeat, Vitthal dominates every game he enters. But what happens if he steps beyond his boundaries, off to the higher leagues? Will he remain undefeated when Ahmedabad, India's favourite kitchen gets a full Punjabi makeover this weekend as COLORS' 'Laughter Chefs Unlimited Entertainment' brings Baisaki festivities. The celebration kicks off with a dholak entry that sets the tone: loud, joyful, and electric, before the cast dives into a round of Punjabi boliya that is folk tradition disguised as a roast session. What starts as festive banter spirals into everyone trying to out-shade each other, with the room erupting into laughter every few seconds. And just when things couldn't get any more festive, Billo Ji arrives with her family to the beats of Aaj Na Chodungi Tuihe, sending the already chaotic kitchen into full celebration mode. The cooking segment brings a delightful twist to close out the fun, with the cast attempting to shape Gur Pare like kites -

Ahmedabad, The bungle of local body elections has been blown in Gujarat. With the last date for filing forms on April 11, parties including BJP, Congress, AAP have intensified their efforts to select candidates. Congress has also completed the senate process in most of the municipal corporations. During the senate process, on one hand, there has been a split in the BJP. On the other hand, it has become difficult for the Congress to find race horses. In this too, only 24 contenders have come forward in 4 wards of Ghatlodia. Vidhansabha in the Chief Minister's constituency in Ahmedabad. Out of which 16 will have to be given tickets. Excluding Surat, Congress has only got four to five contenders per seat in Ahmedabad, Rajkot and Vadodara. Only 3 contenders for one seat of Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation. The Congress has completed the senate process for 192 seats in 48 wards of Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation.
