Credit outlook for FY27 positive for healthcare services

BRICKWORK™ RATINGS

Ahmedabad: In its maiden credit outlook report, India's Sectoral Credit Outlook 2026, Brickwork Ratings (BWR), a home-grown ratings agency, has rated consumer goods and healthcare services as two key sectors with a positive outlook. The consumer goods sector is expected to witness a revenue growth of 17.3% CAGR in the 2025-2030 period on account of credit growth, GST cuts, unlocking of demand from Tier-II/Tier III cities, and premiumisation. Meanwhile, tailwinds for the healthcare services sector include strong interest and debt coverage ratios, a medical tourism market of an estimated USD 13 billion, and expansion of the Ayushman Bharat Program to senior citizens over the age of 70. The India's Sectoral Credit Outlook 2026 marks Brickwork Ratings's first comprehensive annual assessment of credit quality across 25 key sectors. "Built on our proprietary five-parameter credit framework—comprising revenue growth, operating margin, gearing, ISCR, DSCR—the report provides investors, lenders, policymakers and corporates with a credible, forward-looking view of India's evolving credit landscape," said Manu Sehgal, CEO, Brickwork Ratings. BWR expects a stable credit outlook across 22 of its 25 rated sectors in FY27, supported by resilient domestic demand, sustained government capital expenditure, healthy balance sheets, improving operating margins, and predictable cash flows despite geopolitical uncertainties. Technology, automobiles, telecom, infrastructure, logistics, industrials, and power generation benefit from deleveraging, policy support, export opportunities under new trade agreements, and long-term demand visibility. The patient, a 70-year-old woman with multiple comorbidities, including early stage cirrhosis of the liver, was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Fortunately, the disease was detected at a relatively early stage, making the tumour completely resectable. However, her age and underlying health conditions posed significant challenges in determining the safest and most effective treatment approach. Pancreatic cancer surgery is widely regarded as one of the most complex surgical procedures in oncology. It is often associated with prolonged recovery, significant postoperative complications, and extended hospital stays, particularly among elderly patients and those with multiple medical conditions.
