Gambling den built on the roof of a social media influencer's sister's bungalow

Police raided the new bungalow two months ago and immediately started gambling, 8 people including the manager were arrested

Surat

In Surat, the Laskana police, turning a blind eye to Shravania gambling, have cracked down on the gambling den running in Aashirwad Bungalows. The police have caught a total of 8 people, including the main manager, who was having a gambling party on the terrace of the new bungalow and have taken legal action. Investigation has revealed that the main manager, Rasila alias Rashmi Vekaria, who was caught, is the sister of a well-known social media influencer.

Accused Rasilaben built a new bungalow and set up a gambling den. Two months ago, she had built her new bungalow in Aashirwad Bungalows in Laskana. Rasilaben used to invite people from outside to gamble on the terrace of this new bungalow. The police got information while they were setting the time to gamble in the new bungalow and the entire gambling den was exposed. Based on specific information received during patrolling, the raid was conducted. When the Laskana police team was on patrol near Valak Patiya intersection, it was reported that gambling was going on in the open on the terrace of house no. 135 of Aashirwad Bungalows Section-4, Laskana. The police reached the spot in private vehicles and conducted a sudden raid. 8 people were caught gambling on the terrace. The owner of the bungalow, Rasila Vekaria, is also the manager. Those caught gambling include the owner and manager of the bungalow, Rasilaben Hareshbhai Vekaria (age 37), Hiteshbhai Jaysukhbhai Thummar (age 46, resident of Seemadanaka), Hareshbhai Jentibhai Kargar (age 32, resident of Varachha), Mukeshbhai Govindbhai Solanki (age 37, resident of Varachha), Govindbhai Chhanabhai Patoliya (age 45, resident of Matawadi), Amitbhai Rameshbhai Parmar (age 38, resident of Mini Bazaar), Manojbhai Shambhubhai Rathod (age 42, resident of Singanpur) and Rasikbhai Haribhai Gedia (age 40, resident of Chhaprabhatha, Amroli).

Most of the arrested accused are involved in the professions of jewellers, bricklayers and construction. 8 arrested with valuables worth Rs 2.64 lakh Police have recovered cash amounting to Rs 5,000 from the spot and Rs 1.11 lakh from the body search of the accused, making a total cash amount of Rs 1.16 lakh. In addition, 8 phones worth Rs 1.48 lakh including 2 expensive iPhone 16 Pro Max and 52 pieces of Ganjipa have been seized from the accused. Thus, the police have seized valuables worth Rs 2.64 lakh and have registered a case against all the 8 accused under Section 12 of the Gambling Act and are conducting further investigation.

A case has been registered against those who spread sensationalism about CM and Dy.CM

Posted in X and wrote- 'Harsh Sanghvi will become CM and Bhupendra Patel will become Governor'

Ahmedabad

The Ahmedabad Crime Branch has registered a case against the account holder who posted on social media X that 'Deputy Chief Minister Harsh Sanghvi will be made Chief Minister and Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel will be made Governor'. A false post was made on a social media account named Pawan Tyagi that was damaging the reputation and constitutional position of the Chief Minister and Deputy Chief Minister.

Pawan Tyagi made a fake post viral and the Crime Branch is constantly monitoring social media, when a post was seen on social media X by an account named Pawan Tyagi. In which it was written in Hindi, "Big breaking news, Gujarat Deputy CM Harsh Sanghvi will be made the Chief Minister of Gujarat, CM Bhupendra Bhai Patel will be made the Governor." Pawan Tyagi made such a false and fabricated post viral and posted it as news on social media in a way that damaged the reputation and constitutional position of the state Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel. Fear and panic in BJP, crime under IT Act False posting on social media can create an atmosphere of fear and panic among the people of Gujarat and BJP as well as distrust towards the government. Ahmedabad Crime Branch has registered a case against Pawan Tyagi under relevant sections of BNS as well as IT Act and is conducting further investigation. The investigation will be conducted on the context in which the post was made, what were the grounds for it and whether any misunderstanding or rumours were spread due to the post.

A man slipped and fell into the Vishwamitri River and was dragged by a crocodile

Vadodara

A crocodile has been reported to have dragged a man who had fallen into the Vishwamitri river after slipping near his house in Talsat village near Vadodara. After an intensive search by locals and the authorities till late last night (August 22), the body was recovered from the crocodile's mouth. Crocodile attacks and drags middle-aged man - Ranchhodbhai Rathod, a middle-aged man living in Rathodia Vas in Talsat village, was standing near his house when he suddenly slipped and fell into the Vishwamitri river. Before he could get out of the water, the crocodile attacked him and dragged him away. This incident created a lot of panic in the surrounding area. The body was pulled out of the crocodile's mouth. As soon as the incident was reported, the villagers and the local rescue team immediately started a search operation on the river bank. After hours of hard work, Ranchhodbhai's body was found late at night, which was pulled out of the crocodile's jaws after great efforts. Serious marks of the crocodile's fatal attack were seen on the deceased's mouth and other parts of the body. The cause of death will be clear in the PM report. The Atladara police have sent the body to Gotri Hospital in Vadodara for postmortem after conducting a panchnama.

An ocean of devotees flooded the Somnath temple on Monday

Queues started for darshan from early morning; the temple premises echoed with the chants of 'Har Har Bhole'

Gir Somnath (Veraval)

On the second Monday of the holy month of Shravan, a huge rush of devotees is being witnessed at the country's first Jyotirlinga Shri Somnath Mahadev Temple. The gates of the temple have been opened for devotees since 3 am, and long queues of devotees from home and abroad have been formed.

The first Mahapuja and morning aarti of Somnath Mahadev were performed. Apart from this, a special palanquin procession of Shivaji has also been organized. The atmosphere in the temple premises has become devotional with the shouts of 'Har Har Mahadev' and 'Bam Bam Bholenath'.

On Monday of Shravan, visit Somnath Mahadev's house, worship him and perform aarti.

Special arrangements for security, traffic and darshan arrangements:

The district police system was also put on alert mode since night due to the huge crowd of devotees. District Superintendent of Police Jaideepsinh Jadeja and other officials reached the Somnath temple and inspected the entire arrangements. Special arrangements have been made for security, traffic and darshan arrangements to ensure that the devotees do not face any inconvenience. On the Monday of Shravan, a devotional atmosphere prevailed in Somnath with the chanting of 'Har Har Mahadev'.

For the convenience of the pilgrims, the Shri Somnath Trust, the administration and the police have made good arrangements. Free cars, wheelchairs and lifts have also been provided for senior citizens and disabled pilgrims in the temple premises. Former Deputy Chief Minister Nitin Patel has come with his family to have darshan of Somnath Mahadev.

Free demo train arranged

Since the distance from the parking lot of Somnath Temple to the temple is about 700 meters, a free demo train has been arranged with the help of the Tourism Department. This train is providing the facility of continuously bringing and taking the pilgrims to the temple.

Keeping in mind the large number of devotees during the Shravan month, a three-layer security arrangement has been put in place for the security of the Somnath temple. Carrying any kind of electronic item inside the temple is prohibited. Not only this, the devotees are being allowed entry only after the screening process. The police personnel have also been specially trained to behave amicably with the pilgrims and maintain security.

Thus, on the second Monday of the month of Shravan, a wonderful confluence of faith and devotion is being witnessed in Somnath Dham. The entire temple premises have become Shiva-filled with the sound of 'Har Har Mahadev' echoing since early morning.

Read what the atmosphere was like on the first day of Shravan, queues formed for darshan amidst pouring rain

On the first Monday, 1.70 lakh devotees had darshan of Mahadev.

On the first day of Shravan month, the temple remained open from 6 am to 10 pm and during this time, a total of 31200 devotees had darshan of Somnath Mahadev. So on the first Monday of Shravan month, 1 lakh 70 thousand devotees had darshan of Somnath Mahadev.

The only brother of 3 sisters died after their bike slipped

Rajkot

Important incidents related to road accidents and vehicle theft have come to light in Rajkot city. A bricklayer, who was seriously injured when his bike skidded on Morbi Road, tragically died during treatment, causing a wave of grief in the family as 3 sisters lost their only brother just before Raksha Bandhan.

On the other hand, the Crime Branch LCB Zone-2 team has nabbed a youth who stole a bike from Anjar, while it has been revealed that the 3 vehicles detained by the traffic police without number plates were stolen from various areas in the past.

A man died after his bike slipped on the Velnathpara bridge, his family mourns.

Dipeshbhai Manharbhai Ajagiya, who lives in Radhika Park near the gate on Morbi Road and earns his living by working as a bricklayer, was going to meet his friend living on Kotharia Road on his bike. Meanwhile, while passing over the Velnathpara bridge on Morbi Road, his bike suddenly slipped and he fell on the road. He was immediately rushed to Rajkot Civil Hospital with serious injuries to his head and body, where he died during a short treatment late at night. B-Division police have shifted the body for postmortem and are taking legal action. As the deceased is the only brother of 3 sisters, there is immense grief in the family.

LCB Zone-2 nabs Rajkot youth who stole vehicle from Anjar

Rajkot City Zone-2 LCB team, based on specific information received during patrolling, nabbed a man named Dinesh alias Nitin Jamanpariya (age 20) standing with a suspicious bike from Hanuman Madhi Chowk. Police asked for the documents of the Hero Splendor bike and started thrashing him. During strict interrogation, he confessed to having stolen this vehicle from Anjar in the year 2025. Police have seized the stolen bike worth Rs 20,000 and have taken further action against the accused. 3 Activas without number plates detained by traffic police exposed as stolen In a special drive launched by Rajkot city traffic police against vehicles running without number plates for the last 1 month, 3 Activa vehicles detained have been revealed to be stolen. Checking the police records revealed that Activa with number GJ-03-PE-7273 was detained on 3 August 2026 which was stolen on 6 November 2025. While Activa with number GJ-37-P-0582 was detained on 6 August 2026 which was stolen on 10 July 2025 from Bhaktinagar police station area. In addition, an Activa bearing number GJ-03-NJ-0857 was detained on July 28, 2026, which was reported to have been stolen from the Ajidem police station area on May 12, 2024.
