

Kodandaram appears before Kaleshwaram Commission

(contd ... page 1) "The CAG has made it clear that many norms in the Kaleswaram project have been flouted. The BRS leaders say they have built the project. But don't you think the built project has to work," he asked. He said the CWC had already concluded that Medigadda project was not useful and demanded that the construction should be taken up at Tummidihatti while noting that Experts are saying that Kaleswaram project is a useless project. Reacting on the Formula One e-race issue, Kodandaram said it was a mistake on the part of the BRS working president KT Rama Rao to misuse public money for the Formula One race competition. He opined that it would not be appropriate to take such a decision without the approval of the Cabinet and action against KTR must be taken. Kodandaram also responded on the criticism over the purchase of a new car by him. "My existing car has run around a lot. It became a must for me to buy a new car. After becoming an MLC, I bought a new car through a loan given to me," he said. TJS party leaders Bairi Ramesh, Sardar Vinod Kumar, Ravikanth, Nagaraju, Anil and others accompanied Kodandaram on the occasion.

Dalit Speaker faced humiliation in Telangana Assembly: Seethakka

(contd ... page 1) Seethakka further probed why BRS leaders had not sought a discussion on the Formula E race during the BAC meeting, expressing her concern that they were engaging in political maneuvering under false pretenses. She posed the question, "Why does KTR fear facing legal consequences? If he is not guilty of any wrongdoing, he should confidently face the trial and emerge exonerated. KTR appears to be attempting to frame his personal issues as those of the Telangana State populace." The Minister additionally remarked that the BRS Members are colluding to obstruct discussions regarding the Bhu Bharati Bill, which stands to benefit countless farmers. "They are engaging in opportunistic politics due to the potential exposure of their land acquisition schemes. It is important to recognize that everyone is subject to the law. Individuals implicated in the Formula E-car race case will be required to stand trial," stated Seethakka.

Bhu Bharati Act to protect rights of every eligible landowner : CM Revanth (contd ... page 1) The Chief Minister criticised the fact that despite all these irregularities, the Dharani was a miracle and that the BRS leaders went to great lengths to make speeches during the elections. He said the anarchy and wickedness of the BRS leaders in the name of Dharani had reached an unspeakable level. Stating that the Dharani Portal was operated from various States and countries, he expressed his displeasure that while the people trusted the government and provided details related to lands, the information was handed over to private individuals during the tenure of BRS government. "Information was leaked to countries during the BRS regime through Gade Sridhar Raju. If they click one button, all the information will be destroyed. Even our existing servers will be crashed," Revanth Reddy disclosed.

Pained Dhankhar tells MPs to shun theatrics, boost Parliament productivity

New Delhi, Dec 20: Rajya Sabha Chairman and Vice President Jagdeep Dhankhar on Friday expressed pain over disruptions in Parliament that dragged the current session's productivity down to 40 per cent and urged members to shun "theatrics" while picking meaningful debate over the destructive din. Calling for setting high standards, he said, "The world watches our democracy, yet we fail our citizens through our conduct. These parliamentary disruptions mock public trust and expectations. Our fundamental duty to serve with diligence lies neglected.” In his valedictory remarks, the VP said as we conclude this session, coinciding with the 75th anniversary of our Constitution, we face a moment of serious reflection. “While our celebration of Samvidhan Divas in the historic Samvidhan Sadan was meant to reaffirm democratic values, our actions in this House tell a different story,” he said. The stark reality is troubling, this session’s productivity stands at a mere 40.03 per cent, with

Prevented from offering Friday congregational prayers for third consecutive week: Mirwaiz

Srinagar, Dec 20 (UNI) Hurriyat Conference Chairman Mirwaiz Umar Farooq on Friday alleged that he was placed under house arrest and prevented from offering congregational prayers at the Jamia Masjid for the third consecutive week. Mirwaiz, who also serves as Kashmir's Chief cleric, claimed he was barred from attending Friday prayers at the Jamia Masjid in the old city. "Again prevented from going to #JamaMasjid for third consecutive Friday. Despite the bone chilling cold thousands of faithful-the elderly, women, physically challenged, children, and people from all over the valley gather, waiting expectantly with a lot of affection and devotion to listen to the word of God at the Grand Mosque,” Mirwaiz said in a post on X. “What hurt and disappointment it brings to them all when those in power assert brute force and detain me, totally impervious and heartless to the grief they cause to them, to me, and the Muslims of the valley,” he added.

There was no official word from civil or police authorities on Mirwaiz’s house detention claim. Meanwhile, Anjumun Aqaf Jama Masjid Srinagar denounced the just 43 hours and 27 minutes of effective functioning. As parliamentarians, we are drawing severe criticism from the people of India and rightly so, he said. "These persistent disruptions are steadily eroding public trust in our democratic institutions while we did pass the Oilfields Amendment Bill and Boilers' Bill of 2024, and heard the statement by the Minister of External Affairs on India-China relations. These achievements are overshadowed by our failures," he said. The growing trend of publicising notices through media before parliamentary consideration and recourse to Rule 267 further undermines our institutional dignity. We stand at a critical crossroads, the 1.4 billion citizens of Bharat expect better from us, he said. He also reminded the MPs of the need to serve people with all sincerity. "It is time to choose between meaningful debate and destructive disruption. Our democratic legacy demands we rise above political differences and restore the sanctity of parliamentary discourse," he said. Sharing his view on the uproar and disruptions, he said where reasoned dialogue should prevail, we witness only chaos. I urge every parliamentarian, regardless of party, to examine their conscience. "The citizens of our democracy -- one-sixth of humanity -- deserve better than this spectacle. We squander precious opportunities that could serve the greater good of our people. I hope Members will introspect deeply, and citizens exercise their accountability. These hallowed chambers deserve conduct that honors our oath, not theatrics that betray it," he said.

“continuous house detention” of its head and Mirwaiz by the authorities for the third consecutive Friday. In a statement, the Aqaf said that the administration imposes “arbitrary and unjustified restrictions” on the religious functioning of Mirwaiz. The Aqaf lamented that the LG Administration, through these “arbitrary measures” continuously disregards and disrespects the religious sentiments and emotions of the people. “Such measures also amount to interference in religious affairs of Muslims which is highly condemnable,” the statement added.
