Where is the Transparency in Voter Deletions : Devarakonda MLA Nenavath Balu Naik

Skyline Correspondent Nalgonda SEP-28: Devarakonda MLA Nenavath Balu Naik criticized the Election Commission of India for lacking transparency in the Special Intensive Revision (SIR) of voter lists and acting arbitrarily by improperly removing voters. Following instructions from TPCC President B. Mahesh Kumar Goud, Congress leaders and cadre staged a massive protest in front of the District Collectorate on Monday under the leadership of Nalgonda DCC President Punna Kailash Netha. During the demonstration, the protesters burned an effigy of Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) Gyanesh Kumar to register their protest against his conduct. Speaking on the occasion, MLA Balu Naik emphasized that the right to vote is fundamental to democracy and that the Election Commission bears the responsibility to ensure no eligible citizen is disenfranchised. He demanded clear answers on whose names were removed during the SIR process and on what basis those decisions were made. DCC President Punna Kailash Netha alleged that the CEC has turned into a puppet favoring the ruling BJP. He asserted that the Congress party would continue its democratic struggle until every voter's rights are safeguarded. District executive committee members, mandal party presidents, Youth Congress leaders, and party workers attended the protest in large numbers.

Seal Illegal School and Hostel, RTI Service Society Urges Authorities

- Petition Submitted at Prajavani Seeking Immediate Action

Skyline Correspondent Nalgonda SEP-28: The Right to Information Service Society (RTISS) has demanded that the school allegedly being run in violation of government regulations and court orders, along with the unauthorized hostel building, at the Kondamallepally mandal headquarters be immediately closed and sealedIn this regard, RTISS National President Kethavath Baburam Naik and District President Kalakuntla Vinod Kumar submitted a detailed petition to the District Collector during the 'Prajavani' programme held at the Nalgonda District Collectorate on Monday.

They criticized the alleged negligence of Education Department officials, stating that no action had been taken despite the Collector having previously issued directions and despite statutory notices being served. Responding to the petition, the District Collector issued official endorsement directions to the District Education Officer (DEO) to conduct an inquiry and take immediate action. The RTISS leaders demanded that the allegedly illegal school and hostel be sealed within a week and that a vigilance inquiry be conducted. They warned that if action was not taken, they would approach the High Court and Lokayukta.

CEC Gyanesh Kumar should be removed immediately

Sangareddy, September.28 : Suresh Shetkar, the Zaheerabad Parliamentarian demanded the immediate removal of Election Commissioner Gyaneshwar to safeguard the Constitution, alleging that he is facilitating BJP's victories by deleting millions of anti-BJP votes nationwide through the 'SIR' process. Speaking at a protest rally and meeting held in Sangareddy town, organized in response to a call by the Telangana PCC to protest against the CEC's alleged involvement in vote theft, Shetkar said that SC, ST, and minority votes are being deleted across the state, effectively depriving these communities of their voting rights. Later, Sanjeev Reddy noted that notices had been issued to 40,000 voters in the Narayankhed constituency, which has a total of 200,000 voters. He added that the votes of sitting MLAs, MPs, and past MLA candidates were also being deleted. He further alleged that leaders who question the government are being harassed through cases filed by the CBI and ED. He mentioned that Ashok Chavan, who had campaigned for Sanjeev Reddy during the Assembly elections, was intimidated and coerced into joining the BJP. Newly elected DCC President Chandrashekhar Reddy said that the BJP poses a threat to the nation and emphasized the urgent need to protect both democracy and the Constitution. Subsequently, Nirmala Jaggareddy said that she had cast her vote in 2001 and had registered her details during the current process, yet she still received a notice; she alleged that the Election Commission is attempting to delete votes in this manner. She warned that CEC Gnaneshwar must be immediately removed and a case registered against him, adding that the Congress party would continue to fight until this happens. The Program was attended by TPCC General Secretary Topaji Ananthakishan, Medak MP contestant Nilam Madhu, Municipal Commissioner Kuna Vanitha, Congress leaders Kiran Goud, George, Kuna Santhosh and others.
