A lion dragged a child climbing Girnar while holding his uncle's hand

Remains of 12-year-old Mayur Singh found in the forest, attacked him after barely climbing 50 steps; 6 incidents in 25 days

Junagadh

A very heartbreaking and shocking incident has come to light on the famous pilgrimage site of Girnar mountain in Junagadh.

A 12-year-old boy from a tourist family who had come from Modaj village of Mehmadabad taluka of Kheda district on a pilgrimage to Girnar was suddenly attacked by a lion. The boy was climbing Girnar holding the hand of his uncle Mayur Singh when the lion dragged him away. The family members went to investigate and found the remains of the child in the forest. It is worth mentioning that this is the sixth incident of a lion attack on a person in 25 days.

The incident, which took place early this morning (July 11), has caused panic in the entire district and the forest department and police personnel have immediately rushed to the spot. Currently, normal traffic has been stopped on the main staircase of Girnar.

The lion pulled the child by the hand and ran towards the forest.

Regarding this, the child's uncle Chauhan Anilkumarsinh Natwarsinh said that when they were climbing the steps of Girnar in the morning, as soon as they reached about 50 steps inside the gate, a lion suddenly came out of the darkness and attacked his nephew Mayursinh Mahendrasinh from behind. The lion pulled the child by the hand and ran towards the forest, which caused a lot of running and screaming. After that, only the child's shoes, clothes and some remains of the body were found in the forest. He has expressed his anger against the administration and demanded that there is no lighting arrangement on the stairs, due to which even if a wild animal is sitting in the dark, it is not noticeable, so lighting should be provided here immediately and a forest officer should be deployed at some distance.

Barely climbed 50 steps when suddenly the lion dragged the child away.

Giving details, Sandeepbhai, an eyewitness and relative of the incident, said that they had stayed in Girnar at night and started climbing at around 5:45 am with 50 to 60 pilgrims. Barely climbed 50 steps when suddenly the lion came and picked up the child Mayur Singh. There is also talk among the locals that this lion had been sitting around the stairs of Girnar for the last three-four days, yet this big tragedy has occurred due to the lack of adequate lighting or security facilities.

Considering the seriousness of the search for the lion, the police have completely cordoned off the area around the main staircase and have instructed the devotees to move from the old staircase near Jatashankar. On the other hand, separate teams of the forest department have been formed to search for the lion and cages have also been set up around the scene to catch it.

However, with allegations that the RFO did not reach the spot for two hours after the incident, the local staff has taken further intensive action since early morning.

'A lion suddenly attacked and dragged the child'

Kiranpuri Goswami of Kankrej in Banaskantha district said that we had come here last night and after staying overnight, we set out to climb Girnar hill around 7 am today. While we were going up, we got information that a lion had climbed up about 50 steps at the beginning of the Girnar climb. A family was going up there with their family members, during which the lion suddenly attacked and dragged their child. Currently, such details have been received that the child has not been found alive yet, only one of his legs has been injured.

'The lion is still likely to be around this area'

As soon as this serious incident was reported, the forest department and police system immediately swung into action.

Banaskantha family on way to immerse Somnath ashes in accident, four dead

Ertiga car rams into closed truck on Majewadi four-track in Junagadh; condition of two of the four is critical

Junagadh

A horrific road accident took place today on a four-track road near Majewadi village in Junagadh district. The Ertiga car of a family from Banaskantha, who were going to Somnath for the immersion of ashes, rammed into the back of a truck parked on the road. In this horrific accident, 4 people in the car died on the spot, while 4 others were seriously injured, two of whom are in critical condition. In this entire incident, an innocent child was miraculously saved. Death gripped the family on the way to immersion of their relative's ashes. According to the details available, this family from Banaskantha district was on their way to the holy pilgrimage site of Somnath in an Ertiga car for immersion of their relative's ashes. Meanwhile, their car crashed into the back of a truck parked on the highway near Majewadi village in Junagadh. The impact was so strong that the front part of the car was blown off and four members died on the spot. Two injured in critical condition, admitted to Civil ICU

The accident caused a commotion and chaos on the highway. As soon as the incident was reported, local police and 108 emergency service teams immediately rushed to the spot. After carrying out rescue operations, all the injured were taken out of the car and shifted to Junagadh Civil Hospital for immediate treatment. Since the condition of two of the injured is very critical, they have been admitted to the ICU.

The police have shifted the bodies of the deceased to the post-mortem and are planning to register a case of accident. They have also started further investigation into all aspects including the negligence of the driver of the truck that was stopped on the highway.

Dispute between two families over farm road

Mehsana : A violent armed clash has come to light between two families over a simple issue like moving from a farm in the outskirts of Memadpur (Champanagar) village of Jotana taluka of Mehsana district. In this incident of bloody quarrel and fighting, more than five people, including women from both sides, have sustained minor and major injuries. Out of which, the seriously injured have been shifted to the Civil Hospitals of Ahmedabad and Mehsana. Both the parties have filed complaints against each other at the Santhal police station in this matter, and the police have registered a case against a total of 8 people and are conducting further investigation. 'First party complaint: Fatal attack with a dagger and a sword' According to the details of the first incident, according to the complaint filed by Mumtazben Yakubbhai Sama, a resident of Memadpur border, when her nephew Salman was passing through the border, Sabbirbhai Jesarbhai Sama, a resident of the village, threatened him by refusing to let him walk through his farm. When Mumtazben went to the accused's house to reprimand him for this, a heated argument broke out between the two parties. Then, around 8 pm, when Mumtazben's family was sitting at home for dinner, Sabbirbhai Jesarbhai Sama, with a dagger in his hand, his son Armaan, with a sword in his hand, and nephews Alfaj and Arbaaz, with sticks in their hands, rushed in and attacked him indiscriminately.

Hit and run, dumper crushes woman

Young man chases and brings back dumper, mother's body found at the scene; Drunk car driver kills 3, two accidents in Vadodara

Vadodara

Two accidents took place in Vadodara district on the evening of July 10. In the first incident, a dumper crushed a woman near Prathampura in Savli taluka. After which the dumper driver fled the scene. At this time, a young man chased the dumper driver who was fleeing after the accident. However, the driver left the dumper a little further and escaped. However, later the young man drove the dumper himself to the scene. At this time, when he saw the scene of the accident, he was devastated to see that the deceased in the accident was his mother.

In another accident, a drunk driver ran over three people near the city's Mandvi Gate. After which the locals present kicked the driver and threw fenugreek seeds at him.

A woman was crushed by a dumper near Prathampura in Savli. A hit-and-run incident took place near Prathampura (Shi) village in Savli taluka. A highway dumper coming from Savli in the evening at high speed and carelessly hit a middle-aged woman who was passing by on the road. The accident was so horrific that the woman died on the spot, while the dumper driver fled towards Desar after causing the accident.

Dumper driver absconds after accident, youth chases him Alpesh Kumar Parmar, who was standing near the scene of the accident, showed courage and reacted immediately. He stopped Rakeshbhai Rabari, a motorcycle driver from the same village who was coming from Desar and informed the police about the accident and both of them started chasing the dumper on their bikes. Near the bus stand of Laheripura village, he identified the dumper with the help of his mobile light and overtook and stopped the bike in front of it. However, fearing being caught, the dumper driver left the vehicle on the side of the road while it was still running and jumped out of there and escaped.

The young man brought the dumper back, broke down after seeing his mother's body. When the dumper driver fled, Alpesh Kumar himself drove the dumper back to the accident site, where a large crowd of locals had gathered. When Alpesh Kumar went near the crowd and saw the injured middle-aged woman, he was shocked, because the victim of the accident was none other than his own 59-year-old mother, Shardaben Bhupendrabhai Parmar. Her head was severely bruised due to the wheels of the high-speed dumper turning and she became a corpse on the spot.

A case has been registered against the dumper driver and investigation has been launched. After this tragic incident, the son of the deceased, Alpesh Kumar, along with Navalsinh Parmar and Takhatsinh Parmar, has reached the Savli police station and filed a legal complaint against the dumper driver who caused the accident. Savli police have registered a case against the unknown driver on the basis of the dumper and are conducting further investigation. They have also started the wheels of the police to catch the absconding driver.

Drunk car driver hits 3 near Mandvi Gate

Another incident of accident took place late at night near the historic Mandvi Gate of Vadodara city. In which a drunk driver of a four-wheeler, who was speeding, hit three people riding an Activa scooter. All three people were injured in this incident and were immediately rushed to Sayaji Hospital. While the drunk car driver was given fenugreek by the people.

Three people riding a moped were injured in a horrific accident near Mandvi. Three people from the same family, Abdul Qadir Bilal Mamdakhwala, Bilal Abdul Qadir and Arifa Bilal, who were riding an Activa, suffered minor and serious injuries. Following the accident, locals gathered and the three injured were immediately shifted to SSG Hospital for treatment.

Locals kicked the car driver, fed him fenugreek.

The police reached the spot after being informed about this. The people gave fenugreek to the drunk car driver. The police took action to nab the driver of the four-wheeler that had fled after causing the accident. However, within a few hours, the police nabbed the drunk four-wheeler that had caused the accident and its driver.

Bad news from monsoon, clouds disappear from Gujarat in satellite images

Heatwave will continue, no chance of rain for 7 days; 24.63% of season's average rainfall

Surat, In the last two days, no district-taluka of Gujarat has recorded rain. On the other hand, there has been a moderate increase in temperature. 3rd standard educated Bhavnagar BJP organization minister commits Rs 300 crore fraud

Dhamecha Bandhu hired 100 agents, promising 20% return

Bhavnagar

Two cousins, Yogesh Dhamecha and Sanjay Dhamecha from Galyanka village near Bhavnagar, had cheated 6 youths from Sidsar, Galyanka and Chitra of Rs. 93 lakhs in the name of investing in the stock market by promising 20% ??return. But this figure is now likely to cross 300-400 crores.

Reached the house of the Dhamecha brothers in the village of Gajlaika regarding this Ponzi scheme. Where he tried to find out about the entire case along with his family, social worker and agent. The biggest revelation was that Yogesh Dhamecha is the Organization Minister of BJP.

They had collected crores of rupees and absconded for two months.

Police investigation has revealed that the accused used to win the trust of investors by collecting a large amount from one person and paying 20% ??interest as promised to another person. After that, they had collected crores of rupees and absconded for about two months. Initially, a fraud of Rs. 1,03,14,500 was revealed based on the complaints of seven investors.

However, with eight more investors coming forward during the LCB investigation, the amount of the complaint has increased to Rs. 1 crore 29 lakh 4 thousand 500. On the other hand, according to the victims, both the Dhamecha brothers are claiming that they have committed a scam of approximately Rs. 400 crore.

43-year-old Sanjay Dhamecha studied up to Std-12.

Reached the complainant's village today regarding this entire case, where many shocking details have come to light during the investigation. The house of Sanjay Dhamecha, the main accused in the fraud case, has been equipped with CCTV. On reaching his house, his family said that Sanjay Dhamecha is about 43 years old. He is married.

Sanjay has a son and a daughter who earns a living by working as a driver and his father is a retired teacher. After studying till 12th standard, Sanjay did an electrician course from ITI. After that, he earned a living by driving an eco vehicle. According to the family, he said that he was doing the work of the mandal, but the family said that they had no knowledge about his stock market or investment business.

Yogesh, who studied up to Std-3, was the Organization Minister in BJP for two years and then reached Yogesh Dhamecha's house. On investigation, Yogesh Dhamecha, whose approximate age is 28 to 30 years, is in his family. Yogesh is the second son and he has studied up to Std-3. He is married and has a son and a daughter. When asked about his political connections, Yogesh said that he has been the Organization Minister in BJP for the last two years.

Different investors from 35 villages became victims.

Balwant Boricha, a social activist of the complainant village, said, "This was going on for two and a half years and I came to know about this incident for the last one year. There are investors from different places in approximately 30 to 35 villages and thousands of people have become victims in this. Of these two brothers, Yogesh Dhamecha has been an active worker of BJP for the last 15 years. Yogesh is associated with big leaders like Sara.

5 to 10 people used to take care of all Sanjay's work.

5 to 10 people lived with Sanjay Dhamecha 24 hours a day. Moving around day and night, handling his accounts, handling money, taking him anywhere, all these tasks were handled by only 5 to 10 people. I wish that these people should also be investigated in the investigation, only then will it be known who is deeply involved in this and who is involved in the crime.

'This is a scam worth an estimated Rs 300 to 350 crores'

According to my understanding, this is a scam worth an estimated Rs 300 to 350 crores. All this was done through agents and initially he would personally communicate with everyone saying, brother, this is how I run the business. If you are interested, invest in this.

If you look at it this way, it is a kind of fraud on a very large scale. Nowadays, in this time of hunger and inflation, people want to earn two to five paisa. That is why, succumbing to this greed and greed, the victim takes these steps.

'Both had guaranteed to pay 20% return'

Raghubhai Vaghela, who works as an agent, said, "Currently, I have 20 to 25 people under me and both of them had guaranteed me to pay 20% return. Sanjay had given me the stamp paper and trusting him, I invested. Approximately 56 lakh 70 thousand rupees have been deposited in my account.
