

Lubrizol Announces Land Acquisition, Plans to Construct Company's

Ahmedabad, The Lubrizol Corporation, a global leader in specialty chemicals, announced today it signed a Memorandum of Understanding to purchase a 120-acre plot in Aurangabad, India, where it plans to construct a new manufacturing facility to initially support the region's growing transportation and industrial fluid markets. The initial phase of the project represents a projected investment of approximately $200 million, the company's largest ever in India, and builds on previously committed investment in the region. The plant will become the company's second-largest manufacturing facility globally and its largest manufacturing facility in India when completed. Construction will progress in phases over the next several years with room for future expansion.

"Lubrizol has made meaningful investments in India for more than five decades," said Flavio Kliger, President of Lubrizol Additives. "This new state-of-the-art manufacturing facility will allow us to enhance our local capacity and capabilities for our Additives business with the potential to support other Lubrizol businesses and regions in the future." The announcement of the Aurangabad plant signals the company's latest efforts to accelerate growth and enhance its local-for-local capacity in the region. In 2023, Lubrizol announced its most significant investment in its more than 50-year history in the region in the form of a USD 150 million pledge. That investment supports the construction of the world's largest CPVC resin plant in Vilayat, Gujarat, the doubling of capacity at Lubrizol's site in Dahej, Gujarat, the opening of a grease lab in Navi Mumbai and additional in-country job growth and innovation. Amitabh Bachchan once again in Gujarati film 'Fakt Purusho Maate'

Ahmedabad, In 2022, when Anand Pandit and Vaishal Shah's production 'Fakt Mahilao Maate' opened to a rapturous audience response, a sequel seemed inevitable. 'Fakt Purusho Maate,' the much-awaited sequel of the blockbuster hit is all set to release this year on August 23. On July 29, when the trailer of the film was dropped, it took social media by storm. Hinting at an unusual tale about a patriarch returning from the afterlife to interfere with his grandson's wedding, it also gave fans a glimpse of a surprising cameo by superstar Amitabh Bachchan. The glittering ensemble cast including Yash Soni, Mitra Gadhvi, Esha Kansara and Darshan Jarwala has led to waves of excitement among the fans as well. Written and directed by Jay Bodas and Parth Trivedi, this comedy of errors is the third Gujarati collaboration of Anand Pandit and Vaishal Shah. Their previous film 'Tron Ekka' (2023) was also a thumping hit. Anand Pandit says, "Like 'Fakt Mahilao Maate,' the sequel also addresses pertinent issues in a light-hearted manner and takes on generational patriarchy to endorse gender equality and the right to love beyond social restrictions. We are elated with the way the fans have received the trailer. It is so heartening to see the level to which they are emotionally invested in this franchise, and we hope to live up to their expectations when the film releases in theatres on August 23." *
