

Narendra Modi to be Keynote Speaker at Global Business Summit

Ahmedabad, The architect of India's unprecedented economic resurgence and intellectual hegemony, Prime Minister Narendra Modi, will be delivering the keynote address at the Global Business Summit 2026. The summit is scheduled to be held at Hotel Taj Palace, New Delhi, on February 13 and 14. In the eleven years of PM Modi's stewardship, India has climbed six rungs to become the world's fourth largest economy, outranking Japan last year. This is a remarkable achievement in a considerably short period of time and India is already well on its way to becoming the world's third largest economy by 2030. With this background, the PM's address at Global Business Summit 2026 comes at an opportune time in global economic history and would likely lay down a pathway for

Auto component Industry Steps into the Global Fast Lane

India's automotive aftermarket is defining a new phase of growth driven by policy reforms, rising investments and rapid technology adoption. According to the Automotive Component Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA), the auto component industry is currently valued at USD 80.2 billion in FY25, with the automotive aftermarket accounting for USD 11.8 billion today. The component industry is projected to grow to USD 111-200 billion by 2030. As localisation deepens and export opportunities expand, the auto component and aftermarket industries are emerging as reliable and competitive partners in global aftermarket value chains. Against this backdrop, ACMA Automechanika New Delhi 2026, organised by Messe Frankfurt Trade Fairs India & ACMA is scheduled to take

Coming Soon: A New Layer of Privacy Five Years in the Making

Ahmedabad, Our phones are our most personal space, but we use them in the least private places. On the bus, in the elevator, and wherever we're waiting in line, our digital laundry gets aired in plain view. And as phones become more tailored to our routines and preferences, concerns about privacy are only growing. That's why Samsung will soon unveil a new layer of privacy to shield your phone from shoulder surfing wherever you go. You'll have the space to check your messages or enter a password on a packed commute without thinking twice about who might be

Stäubli Expands Manufacturing Facility in Bangalore

Ahmedabad, Stäubli, the global industrial and mechatronic solutions provider, today announced a significant expansion of its manufacturing facility in Bangalore, representing a $10 million strategic investment. The expansion strengthens Stäubli's position in India's rapidly growing solar photovoltaic (PV) sector while reinforcing the company's long-term commitment to the country's industrial growth and the 'Make in India' initiative. The expanded facility will house advanced automated assembly lines and enhanced quality assurance systems dedicated to the production of MC4-Evo1 and MC4-Evo2 connectors, critical components that connect solar modules to inverters and balance-of-system equipment. The move strengthens Stäubli's ability to meet rising domestic demand for high-quality, locally manufactured PV connectors, while also supporting global supply requirements. "India is a key pillar in Stäubli's global growth and manufacturing strategy," said Gerald Vogt,
