A Special Celebration of Music and Literature

Ahmedabad, In a dedicated effort to preserve the rich heritage of the Gujarati language, literature, and culture, the Pradan Charitable Trust – Kaladham, alongside the renowned artist duo Shyamal and Saumil Munshi, has organized a special musical and literary event titled 'Man ni Mojnishi' on February 21, 2026. This date was chosen specifically to coincide with International Mother Language Day, adding a layer of profound pride to the occasion. Since its inception in March 2025, this monthly series has been held consistently, and the upcoming February event marks the 12th installment, signifying the successful completion of the project's first year. The program will be hosted at the Gujarati Sahitya Parishad hall, by performing the songs and recitations of poets and litterateurs whose birth or death anniversaries occur during that month. (19-10) of the event were shared by noted artists Aarti Munshi, Shyamal Munshi, and Saumil Munshi, while Malav Bhai, a trustee of the Pradan Charitable Trust, provided information concerning technical execution and CSR funding. The primary objective of this unique series is to instill a sense of pride for the Gujarati language within the younger generation and to revive literature that is gradually being forgotten. Each month, the initiative pays a "tribute of remembrance" by performing the songs and recitations of poets and litterateurs whose birth or death anniversaries occur during that month. (19-10)
